Principality Laws of Insulae Draconis

The following are the laws of the Principality of Insulae Draconis (“ID”).

1. Insulae Draconis

Insulae Draconis is a branch of the Kingdom of Drachenwald, in the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (“SCA”), which encompasses the modern nations of the United Kingdom, Ireland, and Iceland. While noble and royal titles are used within the Society, no claim to, control over, nor power over any modern territory is claimed or implied.

2. Precedence

- 2.1 The following is the order of precedence for laws and governing practices:
- 2.2 Governing laws, by-laws and statutes of the relevant modern country.
- 2.3 Society Governing Documents
- 2.4 SCA Board of Directors Policy Decisions
- 2.5 Corporate officers policies
- 2.6 Kingdom of Drachenwald Laws
- 2.7 Drachenwald Crown edicts
- 2.8 Drachenwald officer policies.

3. Definitions

- 3.1 Insulae Draconis Royal Couple: Victor and Consort (Prince and Princess, Prince and Prince, Princess and Princess)
- 3.2 Greater Officers: Insulae Draconis Seneschal, Herald, Chatelaine, Minister of Arts and Sciences, Marshal, Exchequer and Chronicler.
- 3.3 Lesser Officers: Web Minister, Rapier Marshal, Equestrian Marshal, Lieutenant General of Archers, Signet Clerk, Receiver of the Chamber and Social Media Officer.
- 3.4 Parliament: A meeting of the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple, officers, peers and members of the populace wherein changes to Principality laws are discussed and/or changes made.
- 3.5 Principality Events: Coronet Tournaments/Investiture.

4. Standards

- 4.1 Email shall be the primary form of communication within Insulae Draconis.
- 4.2 The Principality shall ensure an electronic mailing list is maintained. This list shall be open to anyone who subscribes, provided they follow the mailing list rules.
- 4.3 The Insulae Draconis newsletter, The Baelfyr, shall be published in electronic format.
- 4.4 The Principality maintains control and ownership of the Insulae Draconis website. Domain name registration and website hosting expenses are the responsibility of the Principality.

5. Administration of Principality laws

- 5.1 The Insulae Draconis Royal Couple must consult Parliament prior to making additions, deletions and/or alterations to Principality laws. Any changes to Principality law take effect only after they have been:
- Agreed with their Majesties
 - Agreed with the Kingdom Seneschal
 - Published in the Principality Newsletter
 - Published on the Insulae Draconis web site
 - Proclaimed at an Official Court.
- 5.2 Who can call a Parliament?
- The Insulae Draconis Royal Couple or
 - A quorum of four (4) Greater Officers may demand Parliament be convened.
- 5.3 Parliament is open to all. If recognised by either of the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple, anyone may speak at the Parliament.
- 5.4 Notification:
- For a parliament on or after the 15th
 1. Notice must appear in The Baelfyr of the same month or earlier.
 2. Notice must appear on the Insulae Draconis email list at least two weeks before the Parliament.
 - For a parliament before the 15th
 1. Notice must appear in The Baelfyr of the preceding month or earlier.
 2. Notice must appear on the Insulae Draconis email list at least two weeks before the Parliament.
- 5.5 If the Royal Couple and/or a Quorum of Greater Officers determine, in their opinion, that there is an urgent need to hold a Parliament, then e-mail notification must be sent to those listed below with at least two weeks' notice:
- All Greater and Lesser officers of Insulae Draconis or their designated representatives.
 - All Insulae Draconis branch Seneschals or their designated representatives.
 - The Insulae Draconis email list.
- 5.6 Notice must consist of the following:
- Place where Parliament is to be held
 - Time and date Parliament will be held
 - Proposed agenda.
- 5.7 The Insulae Draconis Seneschal shall make the changes as directed by the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple and submit them to the Kingdom Seneschal and Crown for approval. Upon approval, the amended Principality laws will then be published in the Baelfyr, announced at a Principality Court and published on the Insulae Draconis website. Amendments will not be deemed official until all four of the above actions happen.
- 5.8 The Principality laws will be made available on the Insulae Draconis website. Hard copies will be provided upon written request to the Insulae Draconis Chronicler. The Chronicler may charge for printing and postage costs.
- 5.9 For Parliament to be valid, one of the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple, Seneschal (or duly designated representative) and at least three Greater Officers (or their duly designated representatives) must be present. Greater Officers are requested to make every effort to attend Parliament. Those who cannot attend are requested to send a designated representative in their stead.

5.10 While it is not a requirement, the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple is advised to act with the consensus of the Parliament.

6. Insulae Draconis Royal Couple

- 6.1 Each competitor in the Coronet List must be fighting for a prospective consort of the opposite sex unless the Drachenwald Crown has elected to permit a competitor to fight for a prospective consort of the same sex.
- 6.2 The reign of the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple shall be for a period of nine (9) months.
- 6.3 Insulae Draconis Royal Couple (in cooperation with the Insulae Draconis Seneschal) shall publish in the Kingdom newsletter and The Baelfyr notification of the Tournament's location, date, and time at least two (2) months prior to the Tournament date.
- 6.4 Qualifications for entry into Coronet Tournament:
 - Be acceptable to the Crown and Insulae Draconis Royal Couple.
 - Be at least eighteen (18) years of age on the day of the Tournament.
 - You must be resident in Insulae Draconis for the 6 months prior to the Tournament and attended at least 1 event listed in the Dragon's Tale in that time.
 - Have regular means of quick communication, including e-mail, and sufficient income to support their reign should they win.
 - Be knowledgeable of the structure and laws of the Principality, the Kingdom of Drachenwald and the Society, and be willing to uphold and abide by them.
 - The entrant must be an authorised fighter and present a valid fighter authorisation card.
 - Be current members of the Society.
 - The entrant and consort must have active email accounts. Both email accounts must be subscribed to the mailing list for The Baelfyr that is maintained by the Principality Chronicler's Office.
 - Entrant cannot fight for more than one Consort. No prospective Consort may be fought for by more than one fighter.
 - Optionally, the incumbent Royal Couple can request that each competing couple present a modest A&S project that has been composed or crafted by his/her own hand(s), completed within the twelve (12) months prior to the Coronet Tournament. If requested, these will be presented/performed on the morning before the Coronet Tournament, and the physical items will then be put on display for the populace to peruse at their leisure. The request for these items must be announced at least one (1) month before the Letters of Intent submission deadline. These entries merely are a participatory prerequisite and are not part of the actual Tournament.

7. Requirements for Participation

- 7.1 At least one (1) month prior to the Tournament, entrants must submit a letter of intent to the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple and Seneschal. This can be done via the web-form on the Principality website or via email. Entrant and Consort must state in their letter their desire to compete at the Tournament; provide their mundane names, addresses, telephone numbers and electronic mailing addresses. It is helpful if proof of authorisation is included.
- 7.2 The Entrant and Consort must be present at the Tournament. If either is absent at the Tournament, both will be immediately disqualified.
- 7.3 The Victor and Consort must maintain their memberships to the Society and subscription(s) to The Baelfyr, without lapse, throughout their tenure. They must also maintain a residence within Insulae Draconis.

8. Insulae Draconis Royal Couple Duties

- 8.1 Be present at their Investiture, the next Insulae Draconis Coronet List, and the Investiture of their successors.
- 8.2 Attend and chair Parliament, though they may delegate the chairing duties as they wish.
- 8.3 They are expected to uphold, and abide by the Society laws and governing practices in force, including Corpora, Drachenwald Kingdom Law and the Principality Law.
- 8.4 To enrich Insulae Draconis' atmosphere, they should attend as many events as possible within the Principality during their reign.
- 8.5 Maintain files (paper, CD etc.) of important correspondence, appointments, awards, and other miscellaneous. These files will be transferred to their successors.
- 8.6 Submit to the Principality Herald and Chronicler a list of all awards given within fifteen days after each event.
- 8.7 Relinquish any administrative office held during reign.
- 8.8 Maintain and keep regalia. Transfer all regalia to the successors and provide an updated inventory to the successors and Exchequer.
- 8.9 Encourage the arts and sciences, service, and martial activities throughout Insulae Draconis.
- 8.10 Provide recognition to those deemed worthy of such honour for service and/or achievements within Insulae Draconis.
- 8.11 Encourage courteous behaviour and chivalrous virtue by being the highest example of courtesy and chivalry in public.
- 8.12 The Insulae Draconis Royal Couple may not succeed themselves nor may they participate in any Crown or Coronet tourney.
- 8.13 The Insulae Draconis Royal Couple are expected to help replenish the travel fund through fundraisers and/or contributions during their reign.

9. Rights and Privileges of the Insulae Draconis Royalty

- 9.1 The Insulae Draconis Royal Couple will hold Court and present awards.
- 9.2 The Insulae Draconis Royal Couple have the right to grant Principality awards during a court to those whom they feel are worthy of recognition.
- 9.3 The Insulae Draconis Royalty will be allowed privilege of sanctum, which is defined as a clear area within a radius of ten (10) feet from the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple.
- 9.4 The Insulae Draconis Royal Couple are allowed to appoint a Retinue consisting of such guards, advisers and assistants as they deem needed, and make other royal appointments as they see fit.
- 9.5 The Insulae Draconis Royalty are allowed to accept/refuse personal gifts made to them or to Insulae Draconis. Those gifts that are not personal in nature will become regalia and are the property of Insulae Draconis.
- 9.6 The Insulae Draconis Seneschal shall carry out a poll of all royal peers in the Principality in advance of each Coronet's reign ending to give their opinion as to whether the stepping-down Coronets should be awarded a Patent of Arms, should they not already bear a Patent and be awarded a Viscounty. The results of the poll shall be forwarded to the Crown about 4 weeks in advance of the next Coronet Investiture.

10. Failure of Succession

- 10.1 In the case that either of the Royal Couple should abdicate or die, the other shall assume the full powers of the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple for the remainder of the reign.
- 10.2 In the case that both the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple should abdicate or die, the previous victor or consort, in that order, shall become Regent. The Regent shall have all duties and privileges of the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple granted under Corpora and these laws, except the right to make or bestow awards and orders, the right to make or change law, and the right of sanctum. If the previous victor or consort is not available or refuses, then the Insulae Draconis Seneschal shall become Regent.
- 10.3 If the schedule for the next Coronet Tournament is greater than four (4) months from the time the Regent takes office, then he or she shall schedule and hold a Coronet Tournament at the earliest possible date, and invest the victor and consort as Insulae Draconis Royal Couple immediately. The Insulae Royal Couple shall serve until the next scheduled Coronet Tournament.

11. Failure of Tournament

- 11.1 If for any reason a Coronet Tournament fails to result in a victor, then the Principality Seneschal shall become Regent and re-schedule the tournament to occur within three (3) months. This time frame allows a site to be found and the event announcement to be published in the Dragon's Tale and The Baelfyr.
- 11.2 During the time between the scheduled Coronet Tournament and the victory of heirs, the 'regent' procedures outlined in 10.2 come into effect.
- 11.3 If a second tournament in a row fails, then the Crown shall appoint a Vicar whom most likely is a peer of the realm residing in ID, but the Crown may decide otherwise.

12. Principality Events.

- 12.1 The principality shall receive fifty (50) percent of the profits from all Principality events as defined in this section.
- 12.2 Coronet Tournament: There shall be an Insulae Draconis Coronet Tournaments which shall be held every nine months, which will fall in the months of February, November, August, and May. These lists will be held preferably the second or third weekends of the months. This schedule should be followed as closely as possible.
- 12.3 Raglan Faire: The Principality's premier event held normally every August at Raglan Castle, Wales.

13. Principality Officers

- 13.1 The Principality shall have the following offices: Seneschal, Exchequer, Herald, Minister of Arts and Sciences, Marshal, Chronicler and Chatelaine. The Principality may also have a Historian. Each officer is required to make an oath or solemn promise to the Crown of Drachenwald through the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple as soon as possible after the ascension of a new Royal Couple of Insulae Draconis
- 13.2 All Insulae Draconis Officers should take and train a deputy for their office who shall be their designated successor. Nothing in this section prohibits an Insulae Draconis officer from having more than one deputy; however, one should be named as the designated successor.
- 13.3 Vacancies: In the event that an office becomes vacant, the Seneschal shall advertise in The Baelfyr for a new Insulae Draconis officer. Applications will be received for a period of one (1) month. The departing officer and the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple will then review all applications to make their decision. The applicant's name will then be submitted to the pertinent Kingdom Officer for approval. If the Crown has removed the departing officer, then the appropriate Kingdom Officer and warranting authority shall make the decision.
- 13.4 With the exception of the Seneschal, Herald, Marshal and Exchequer, all other Principality officers may hold shire or canton positions with two (2) provisions: they cannot hold a local office that has direct reporting requirements to them at the Principality level, and they must receive permission from the Insulae Draconis Royal Couple.
- 13.5 The terms of office for Principality Officers begin as needed.
- 13.6 Greater Officers may be removed from office according to the procedures given in the Governing Documents of the Society and Kingdom Law.

13.7 Duties and obligations of the Insulae Draconis officers.

- Must maintain Society membership throughout office term and reside in Insulae Draconis.
- Must maintain or have immediate access to Kingdom and Principality newsletter subscriptions.
- Must promote and encourage development and knowledge within the specialty of the office.
- Must maintain an archive of official correspondence and documents. This archive should be transferred to the new officer within one (1) month of the transition.
- Must seek and train a deputy to replace them.
- Each officer shall require and co-ordinate reports from his or her subordinate officers in a timely fashion so that they may report to their appropriate kingdom officer. Each officer shall be in contact with his or her subordinate officers on a regular basis but not less than once per quarter.
- To enable Insulae Draconis Officers to report to their respective kingdom level officers on the 25th day of each quarter, local officers must file their quarterly reports by the 15th day of April, July, October and January. Semi-annual reports, for those who only require these, are due no later than the 15th of January and July.
- All branch officers are required to send copies of their reports to their branch seneschal and any ruling nobles of their branch. For example: Principality officers will copy their reports to the Coronet and Principality Seneschal, and any baronial officers within Insulae Draconis shall copy their reports to the branch Baron and/or Baroness as well as the Baronial Seneschal. In all other branches the offices shall copy their branch seneschal on their reports.
